

*March 25th
is Maryland Day!*

Are you ready to teach about it?

Join us and teachers from around Maryland on:

*Saturday, March 20th
Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore
8:30 to Noon*

- Learn about early Maryland history
- Receive classroom resources
- Workshop sessions conducted by
 - Maryland Council for Economic Education
 - Maryland Geographic Alliance
 - Maryland Historical Society
 - Maryland State Department of Education
- Learn how to use primary sources in your classroom
- Light refreshments will be served
- Open to all teachers but specifically targeted to teachers in Grades 4 and 8.

Registration Deadline: February 5th. (Only the first 50 registrants will be accepted.)

Sponsored by:

*Maryland Council for Economic Education
Maryland Geographic Alliance
Maryland Historical Society
Maryland State Department of Education*

To Register: Complete the attached form and fax to

Dr. Marcie Taylor-Thoma 410-333-2379

Maryland State Department of Education
Division of Instruction – Office of Social Studies

200 W. Baltimore St.
Baltimore, MD 21201
410-767-0317
410-333-2379 (fax)

Maryland Day Workshop
March 20, 2010
Maryland Historical Society
Baltimore, Md.
Participant Registration Form

Your Name: _____

LSS & School Name: _____

Email Address _____

(Please print clearly. You registration will be verified via this email address)

*Grade _____

Preferred Telephone Number _____

Upon receipt of this fax we will confirm your registration status via the email address that you provided above. At that time you will receive directions to the Maryland Historical Society.

Registration Deadline: February 5, 2010

(only the first 50 registrants will be accepted)

Fax to:
Dr. Marcie Taylor-Thoma
410-333-2379

Questions? Call 410-767-0317