

Summer Seminars 2010 for Teachers

The Gilder Lehrman Institute is renowned for its scholarly seminars for K-12 teachers and National Park Service interpreters. In 2010, the Institute will offer thirty-nine seminars for nearly 1,200 teachers. Held at institutions throughout the United States and Great Britain, these seminars provide intellectual stimulation and practical resources and strategies to take back to the classroom. Over the past fourteen years, more than 6,000 educators have participated in Gilder Lehrman seminars. For more information about the Institute's seminars, please visit www.gilderlehrman.org or call (646) 366-9666.
